

November 1, 2015

Matthew
The Good News of Matthew

I. A Household, Not a House

II. A King, Not a Puppet

III. A Movement, Not a Monument

November 1, 2015

Matthew
The Good News of Matthew

I. A Household, Not a House

II. A King, Not a Puppet

III. A Movement, Not a Monument

Questions for Quiet Time or Small Groups
For the week of November 1, 2015

1. What are some major ways that Matthew presents Jesus as the Messiah?

2. What is the significance that Matthew includes approximately 50 direct citations from the Old Testament?

3. How is the Great Commission a reality in your daily life?

4. What have you learned from Matthew's account of Jesus that inspires you to share this Good News with others?

Questions for Quiet Time or Small Groups
For the week of November 1, 2015

1. What are some major ways that Matthew presents Jesus as the Messiah?

2. What is the significance that Matthew includes approximately 50 direct citations from the Old Testament?

3. How is the Great Commission a reality in your daily life?

4. What have you learned from Matthew's account of Jesus that inspires you to share this Good News with others?