

October 18, 2015

Rumors

Matthew 27:62-66, 28:1-15

I. Thieves and Bodyguards (vv. 62-66)

II. Women and Angels (vv. 1-10)

III. Marketing a Lie (vv. 11-15)

October 18, 2015

Rumors

Matthew 27:62-66, 28:1-15

I. Thieves and Bodyguards (vv. 62-66)

II. Women and Angels (vv. 1-10)

III. Marketing a Lie (vv. 11-15)

Questions for Quiet Time or Small Groups
For the week of October 18, 2015

1. Why did the group of unbelievers go to so much effort to guard the tomb if they really did not believe Jesus' prediction of rising again would possible come to pass?

2. How does this contrast with the despondent disciples who seemingly forgot Jesus' prediction and had to be informed by the women of his resurrection?

3. In this most eventful episode in human history, the phrase "Do not be afraid..." were spoken to the women by both the angel at the tomb and Jesus when they encountered him. How do those words impact you today in your everyday life?

4. Why was the motive for the chief priests to have an explanation to counter the truth of what had happened at the tomb?

5. Why is the truth often harder for a person to believe than a lie?

Questions for Quiet Time or Small Groups
For the week of October 18, 2015

1. Why did the group of unbelievers go to so much effort to guard the tomb if they really did not believe Jesus' prediction of rising again would possible come to pass?

2. How does this contrast with the despondent disciples who seemingly forgot Jesus' prediction and had to be informed by the women of his resurrection?

3. In this most eventful episode in human history, the phrase "Do not be afraid..." were spoken to the women by both the angel at the tomb and Jesus when they encountered him. How do those words impact you today in your everyday life?

4. Why was the motive for the chief priests to have an explanation to counter the truth of what had happened at the tomb?

5. Why is the truth often harder for a person to believe than a lie?