

October 4, 2015

A Guilty World
Matthew 27:11-31

I. When the World Accuses (vv 11-14)

II. When the Crowd Turns (vv 15-26)

III. The Darkness of the Human Heart (vv 27-31)

October 4, 2015

A Guilty World
Matthew 27:11-31

I. When the World Accuses (vv 11-14)

II. When the Crowd Turns (vv 15-26)

III. The Darkness of the Human Heart (vv 27-31)

Questions for Quiet Time or Small Groups
For the week of October 4, 2015

1. How do you respond when the world makes accusations today against Jesus?
2. What was motivation of the religious leaders to persuade the crowd to ask Pilate to crucify Jesus who was innocent and pardon a known criminal?
3. What does the crowds response to accept responsibility on the vote to execute Jesus, show us about the human heart?
4. Name some of the times when you have declared your innocence in an outward manner to the world even when you were complicit? Why do we feel compelled to do that?
5. How does the mocking of Jesus reveal how low the human heart can descend?

Questions for Quiet Time or Small Groups
For the week of October 4, 2015

1. How do you respond when the world makes accusations today against Jesus?
2. What was motivation of the religious leaders to persuade the crowd to ask Pilate to crucify Jesus who was innocent and pardon a known criminal?
3. What does the crowds response to accept responsibility on the vote to execute Jesus, show us about the human heart?
4. Name some of the times when you have declared your innocence in an outward manner to the world even when you were complicit? Why do we feel compelled to do that?
5. How does the mocking of Jesus reveal how low the human heart can descend?