

Series: The Investigation

“The Summons”

Luke 19:28-48

The Big Idea:

Jesus is God and King and therefore worthy of worship. (Luke 19:28-48)

Who is This Jesus Being Investigated?

1. Jesus is the all-wise _____ God. (Luke 19:28-34)

2. Jesus is the all-worthy _____ of God. (Luke 19:35-40)

3. Jesus is the all-willing _____ as God. (Luke 19:41-48)

Conclusion:

At Christmas time we ask, “Who is this man?”, and often times the verdict is quite off. On the heels of resurrection Sunday, let us ask, “Who is this man?” God has given us the answer through the hands of Dr. Luke, so we don’t have to make stuff up and end up with a horrible case of mistaken identity. The answer to who this Jesus is, is that He is the all-wise sovereign God, He is the all-worthy sacrifice of God, and He is the all-willing Savior as God. That’s who has come to town and is coming to town again!

“The Summons”

Luke 19:28-48

(Study Guide)

Read Luke 19:28-48

1. After reading the passage in its entirety what conclusion have you come to regarding Jesus? Why did you come to that conclusion?
2. Why is it so hard for many in our society to accept Jesus for who He claimed to be and who Scripture says He is?
3. What evidence is there to prove that Jesus is more than just a good teacher, religious leader, or martyr? Is there any evidence that would back up His claim to be God in flesh?
4. In regards to Jesus dying on the cross, why does it matter that He was the all-wise sovereign God, the all-wise sacrifice of God, and the all-willing Savior as God? How does this about Jesus affect your daily life?