

Palm Sunday 2024

“How to Prepare for Easter”

Luke 19:28-44, Matthew 21:1-11

How to Prepare for Easter

1. Do what Jesus _____ (Luke 19:28-40)

2. Feel what Jesus _____ (Luke 19:41-44)

3. Tell who Jesus _____ (Matthew 21:1-11)

Conclusion:

Your mission, if you would prepare for Resurrection Sunday in a way that will bring God glory and true and lasting joy into the lives of others, is to do what Jesus says, feel what Jesus feels, and tell others who Jesus is. And when that happens, guess what may just happen next?

The same thing it did for many in that Palm Sunday crowd:

It will bring joy to others, when they discover Jesus, the Creator of the universe, who took on a body, died for the sins of the world, and rose again!

SHINE PARTNERSHIP

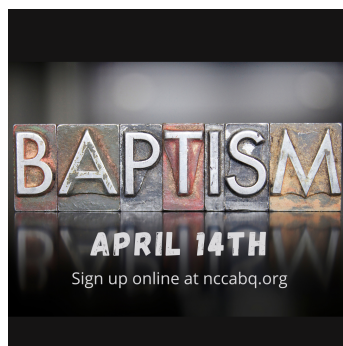

Our Shine ministry at EG Ross Elementary is collecting gift cards for teacher appreciation week. Please bring gift cards from your favorite places, valued anywhere from $10-$25 to the Welcome Desk each Sunday from now until April 14th. We want to show some New Covenant love to all the teachers at EG Ross.

Our next Making NCC Your Home is April 3rd at 6:30 pm. If you would like to make NCC YOUR home, register to join us for a more in depth look at who New Covenant Church is and how you can be a part of our family. Visit nccabq.org to register.

Calling all Children's Ministry volunteers and their immediate families!! Come and enjoy a breakfast burrito bar in the Warehouse from 11:45-1:00 pm on April 14th. We want to thank you for all your hard work, time, and energy to help teach NCC kids about Jesus and help them further their relationship with Him. Please RSVP on our website no later than April 5th. We look forward to seeing you there!

Baptism Sunday is coming up on April 14th. If you are ready to profess your decision to follow Jesus and have not yet been baptized, please sign up on our website.
