

Series: The Unveiling

“A Little Taste of Hell On Earth”

Revelation 9:1-21

The Big Idea:

A refusal to repent and follow Jesus always leads to destruction.

(Revelation 9:1-21)

Why Repent and Follow Jesus?

1. Repent and follow Jesus because Satan wants _____ you.

(Revelation 9:1-11).

2. Repent and follow Jesus so God won't have to _____ you.

(Revelation 9:12-21)

Conclusion:

Let's not miss the grace and mercy of God in this passage. He gives unbelievers the chance to repent and follow Jesus and so be spared the punishment that awaits sinners in hell.

For those of us that are followers of Jesus there can still be this tendency to go back to the things that were killing us and separated us from God Almighty. While Satan has lost you to Jesus and he can never snatch you from His hand, he will still do everything he can to render you useless and ineffective. Don't let him, as sin never lives up to its promises.

Let's pray now that we would be people that treasure Jesus above all else and so live solely for Him as He is the One who is supremely worthy of living for!

Revelation 9:1-21 Study Guide

Read Revelation 9:1-21

1. As you observe Revelation 9:1-11 what ways do you see that Satan wants to harm mankind? What are some practical examples of how we see him doing that today?

2. We can see that the demon locusts are under God's sovereign authority in that they can only do what God allows them to. How does this truth encourage you when going through trials or experiencing spiritual attack? Do you ever doubt God's goodness and sovereignty? If so, how do you keep from spiraling down the rabbit hole of doubt?

3. While reading through the fifth and sixth trumpet judgments what reasons do you see for God going to such drastic measures? Do you see this as being cruel or unloving? Why or why not?

4. After reading Revelation 9:20-21 what do you learn about human nature? How do those verses help you understand why we must be saved by grace and not by works?
