(Study Guide)

1. Read Revelation 1:1-3. Just from those three short verses, what do you observe when it comes to why we should study the book of Revelation and prophecy in general? What other reasons were given on Sunday morning? Why are or aren't those reasons important?

2. The fifth reason for studying prophecy that was given on Sunday morning was that it encourages us to live godly lives in light of eternity. How does studying prophecy have that effect? What specifically about end times motivates you to live a godly life?

3. When it comes to HOW to study end-times prophecy it was stated that we should interpret it literally, to look for built-in interpretations, and to compare parallel passages. Why is our method of study in this area so important? What are the dangers of adding meaning to the text? How does a proper study of the Word prevent that?

4. What are some of the signs of the end-times we should be looking for? Do you see any happening today? Which ones and how do those impact us here and now as well as in the future?
