

Series: The Unveiling

“God’s Grand Preview” (Part 1)

Revelation 14:1-5

The Big Idea:

God always rewards His _____.

(Revelation 14:1-5)

God’s Grand Preview

1. God will honor His _____.

(Revelation 14:1-5)

Biblical Principle:

Special faithfulness to Jesus _____ leads to special reward from Jesus in _____.

Conclusion:

“Are we living our lives like the special messengers, the 144,000? Who will we choose to please, Christ or the crowd? Are we willing to make significant sacrifices to live for Jesus?”

Making significant sacrifices to live for Jesus starts with daily decisions to honor Him in the small stuff. It starts with planning our day with Jesus being the center of it. It means getting up earlier or staying up later to spend time with Him. It means denying ourselves of certain entertainment choices to honor Him. It means loving on and reaching out to unlovely people at times. It means a lot of things that seem like big sacrifices, but in light of eternity the rewards will far outweigh any sacrifice we make. May we never forget...

God always rewards His faithful followers.

August 6, 2023

Revelation 14:1-5 Study Guide

Read Revelation 14:1-5

1. These five verses about the 144,000 give us a checklist for self-assessment. What character qualities do you see listed here? How are you doing in these areas? What are some practical ways you could improve in any of these areas?

2. Read Joshua 14. What phrase regarding Caleb is mentioned three different times? How can the same be true of you?

3. Revelation 14:1 tells us that all 144,000 that had been chosen and sealed by God were not lost or forgotten during tumultuous and evil times. How does this encourage you in your walk with God now?

4. In what areas of your life are you prone to get too focused on the temporary and forget to live in light of eternity? How does Revelation 14:1-5 help you to refocus on that which is eternal?

5. Brainstorm the things of this life that are eternal and carry the greatest weight and then come up with a plan for how you will stay focused on those things in the days to come.

August 6, 2023