

Series: The Unveiling

“The Return of the King”

Revelation 19:11-21

The Big Idea:

We can live confidently knowing Jesus will execute righteous judgment because He is the perfectly faithful and true King. (Revelation 19:11-21)

Reasons for Boasting of the King’s Return

1. The King’s return is a glorious _____ . (Revelation 19:11)

2. The King’s return is a theological _____ .

(Revelation 19:11-16)

3. The King’s return is a victorious _____ .

(Revelation 19:17-21)

Conclusion:

One of the reasons Satan doesn’t want us to read Revelation or to think we could never understand it is because it exposes him for who he is... a defeated foe. Once Jesus joins the battle it’s game over for the Antichrist, false prophet, Satan, and all those that have aligned themselves with them. But for believers it will be the beginning of eternity with Christ as the only reigning King and perfect relationship and intimacy with Him. What a day that will be!

Revelation 19:11-21 Study Guide

Read Revelation 19:11-21

1. What descriptions of Jesus do you observe in this passage? What do these descriptions tell us about His character and power? How are those characteristics significant for us today?

2. Read 2 Thessalonians 2:8 and Revelation 19:20. Now describe what Jesus will do to the Antichrist. How should this comfort followers of Jesus?

3. Read Matthew 24:31. What will Jesus have the angels do when it comes to those who have been faithful through the Tribulation? What encouragement does that bring you as you serve Him in the midst of an evil and perverse generation?

4. Who are at least three people you know that would be destroyed at Christ's second coming right now? How will you go about sharing the good news of Jesus with them so that they don't become part of the food for birds?
